Throw 'N Go Dressing

A fresh line out of L.A. puts a new spin on the old idea of cozy basics for fall.

"I'm really attracted to garments that don't pop immediately, but become more interesting the longer you look at them," emerging talent Dorothy Lee (a veteran of Peter Som and Chanel) has said, and this design philosophy shines through in her debut collection that's chock full of subtly chic jersey tops, cashmere knits, and silk dresses in pretty neutrals for fall.

Need something saucy to wear to the office? Try her cozy but refined silk cashmere cardigan with ribbed shoulder detail. Hot date at Coast Sushi? Make an impression with her washed silk bubble dress in a striking deep purple. Ham and eggs at Orange with the girls for Sunday brunch? Inspire envy in a wool cashmere pinafore dress that's the perfect blend of trendy and ladylike.

We just showed Dorothy's spring collection at our Fresh Faces in Fashion show in L.A. to rave reviews, so we know that this is a future star worth keeping your eyes on; grab one of her pieces now while she's on the rise!

Dorothy Lee is available at p45, 1643 North Damen Avenue, (773) 862-4523, or online at Revolve Clothing.
